The Roslin String Quartet

In Partnership with Aberdeen International Youth Festival

The Roslin String Quartet comprises recent graduates and students from the Royal Conservatoire of Scotland. First violinist Hannah Gordon, violist Ailish Oldfield and cellist Iain McHugh have been playing together in ensembles since 2012 as the “Ashton Quartet”. Recently regrouped and re-branded, the Roslin String Quartet is happy to introduce a new member, Heather Storer as second violinist.

Performing:

Grieg: String Quartet in G Minor,

Bartók: Romanian Folk Dances

Arrangement of Scottish Tunes by our Cellist Iain McHugh

Tickets £8.80, Concession £5.50 (inc. bf)
